Interview Questions

1. Explain how you arrived at the title: He's Saved...But is He For Real?
2. Sandy's character gets frustrated after several disastrous dates. What message you would like to give to women like Sandy who desire a godly mate but find it difficult to find the right one?
3. How did Liz's character not growing up with her father affect her relationships with men?
4. How can one date someone and truly love them without having sex before marriage?

New Novel: HE'S SAVED...But is He For Real?

In her witty and heartwarming sequel to He's Fine...But is He Saved? Kimberley Brooks follows the lives and loves of three friends in an irresistible novel about friendship, forgiveness and trusting your heart...

It's been almost two years since Michelle Williamson's boyfriend, Pierre Dupree, walked out on her to marry a minister's daughter. Since then, Michelle's friendship with her church buddy David has deepened into something sweet and special, but learning that Pierre has called off his wedding throws her into confusion. When Pierre wants Michelle back, she's forced to make a choice -- one she may regret.

Liz Coleman has two great blessings - her calling as a minister, and a saved man who truly loves her. But Liz's insecurity and jealousy are eating at her peace of mind and threatening her relationship.

Sandy has found the strength to get her ex out of her life. But meeting a loving, spiritual man to replace him isn't easy, and soon her loneliness leads her to the one brother who should be off-limits...

With their hearts and souls on the line, Michelle, Liz and Sandy are learning that a good, saved man isn't always hard to find - but he's definitely worth waiting for...

Meet the Author

Kimberley Brooks is an author, speaker, licensed minister, and songwriter. She is the author of the Black Expressions' Best-Seller, He's Fine...But is He Saved? and, The Little Black Survival Book for Sing Saints. She is a contributing singles columnist for Anointed Pages Magazine and Hope for Women Magazine, and she authors and distributes an E-Newsletter for singles entitled, The Single Heart.

As a 30-year-old virgin who is saving herself for marriage, Kim speaks candidly in churches, high schools, and other venues across the country on the subjects of abstinence until marriage and healthy relationships which can only be found in an open and honest relationship with Jesus Christ. An English graduate of Michigan State University, and an honors graduate of Word of Faith Bible Training Center, Kim is a member of American Christian Writers' Detroit chapter, which is also her hometown.
